

SILENT EMISSARY

CINEMATIC 02

TRISTAN INFILTRATES GRAVE LIMIT

SET UP: Tristan and Villia have just stolen an aircraft and are breaking into one of Commander Walker's base.

VOICE DIRECTION:

TRISTAN: He's determined and completely focused on his mission. He doubts Villia's competence and instinctual behavior, but goes along with it.

VILLIA: She has a brave and carefree attitude. She's cocky on the battlefield and lives for adventure. She doesn't try to be reckless, but life is more exciting when she is.

LOCATION: in the dungeon of Grave Limit.

START CINEMATIC:

A giant aircraft swerves through the air, and all we hear are military soldiers SHOUTING ORDERS at each other.

They shoot missiles aimlessly into the sky, but the aircraft is too swift to hit!

MOVE CAMERA DOWN TO SOLDIERS. They run across the narrow path with their weapons, trying to destroy the aircraft.

SOLDIER #1

Preserve your ammo! This thing is gonna take a few missiles to knock down!

SOLDIER #2

Just who the hell is driving that thing anyway?

UPSHOT. The aircraft keeps spinning and swerving through the base.

ANOTHER ANGLE. The vehicle dives down and KNOCKS SOLDIERS off the narrow path!

DOWNSHOT. They go SCREAMING as they fall into the water at the bottom of the dungeon.

BACK ON THE AIRCRAFT. The vehicle takes altitude once more.

CUT TO INSIDE THE AIRCRAFT. Villia is having a good time steering the ship, but Tristan watches her with a look of disbelief. He walks over to the steering wheel.

VILLIA

Having fun?

TRISTAN

You sure you're qualified to even be steering this thing?

CUT TO VILLIA. She smirks at the sarcastic remark.

VILLIA

Relax. I didn't reach my rank as flight lieutenant because of my looks.

OUTSIDE THE VEHICLE. The aircraft swerves over missiles and loops through giant pipes that branch across the ceiling.

BACK INSIDE ON TRISTAN. He looks out the window and then opens the door. The HOWLING WIND rushes over his face.

HIS POV. It's a long drop down with soldiers still chasing after the aircraft and trying to fire, but their bullets can't even reach the aircraft.

PULL CAMERA BACK TO INCLUDE VILLIA. She keeps her eyes ahead, but tilts her head toward Tristan.

VILLIA

Just say the word and we'll make the jump.

CLOSE ON TRISTAN. He keeps focused looking at the ground. After a moment of silence...

TRISTAN

Now!

OUTSIDE THE AIRCRAFT. Tristan and Villia make their jump and the aircraft shoots down from the sky with no one steering it.

SOLDIER #1

Take them down!

ON THE GROUND. Tristan and Villia take out their weapons and start fighting through the soldiers. With incredible acrobatics and skill, they run across the narrow path while knocking soldiers into the water!

PAN CAMERA TO SKY. Other airships start firing at them with bullets and missiles!

CUT TO TRISTAN AND VILLIA. They leap and roll their way past the missiles and make it through the narrow path. They jump off and land on a bridge and keep running.

VILLIA

We shouldn't be too far by now.

CUT TO ANOTHER SOLDIER.

SOLDIER #3

Release the Cykron!

ON THE SKY. An alarm BLARES and a cage in the ceiling BREAKS FREE! A giant mammoth with spikes over its body (known as a Cykron) falls from the cage, GROWLING FEROCIOUSLY.

PAN CAMERA DOWN. The Cykron lands right in front of Tristan and Villia. They pull out their weapons, staring straight at the monster.

TRISTAN

This shouldn't take more than a few seconds.

END OF CINEMATIC.
